Two Watches will be drawn at the 2019 National Field Trial in Pinckneyville IL during the week of November 4, 2019

Overview: In addition to syncing with your Garmin dog tracking collar when training, the Garmin Fenix 5x has everything you'd want in a modern fitness watch, with the ability to track metrics including distance traveled, calories burned, sleep quality, and heart rate, and has preloaded activity profiles for a wide variety of exercises and sporting activities from swimming to golf. The Fenix 5 also operates as an everyday smartwatch, syncing with your phone to deliver messages and alerts right to your wrist. The watch itself also boasts built-in features like GPS and GLONASS satellite reception, a three-axis compass, and a barometric altimeter for serious outdoor adventuring.

Garmin is continually working with top companies and developers to build partnerships that add even more value to your Fēnix 5x multisport watch. Names such as Uber, Strava, AccuWeather and many others offer apps and enhancements that let you tailor your Fēnix 5X to fit your lifestyle in more ways than ever.
