VCOA SPRING TRIAL WINNERS

Pictures of the other two derby placements, Good Upland Jet, second, and Slu Poke, fourth, were not taken.

Field Champion Weedy Creek Lobo is shown above with his handler Hank Rozanek after placing second in the Open Limited All Age, which was the only placement awarded in the stake.

Judging from this picture, Vizsla people also seem to favor station wagons and campers. This was the scene at field trial headquarters, looking toward the starting line for the Amateur and Open All Age.

VCOA SPRING FIELD TRIAL
COLORADO SPRINGS

by George Silvola

With ninety entries on hand, the VCOA 1969 spring field trial started at 7:00 A. M. April 19, 1969, at Fort Carson, Colorado. A beautiful, clear, sunny morning greeted all bracemates as they looked forward to running their dogs in the opening day's events. Weather forecasts of a Pacific cold front had been aired on the radio and television stations within the area, with forcasts of snow; however, the temperature was far from any indication of such a cold front.

Commencing on two separate courses were the Amateur Gun Dog with seventeen entries, and the Open Derby with eighteen entries. The Amateur Gun Dog Event was judged by judges Dale Thompson and Charlie Chalk and on the nearby course, the Open Derby was under judges Ted Weaver and Don Anderson. The bracemate order in the Amateur Gun Dog event was as follows: Brace I--Flick Pheasantwood, O/H Patrick Walsh and Jon Brok Cribaba, O/H Dale Blair; II--Ch. Debreceny Dezso O/ Gary Carpenter, H/ May Carpenter, and Bobo Buck Selle, O/H Sylvester Armstead; III--Heidi of Windsweep, O/ Terri Reinhardt, H/ Dick Reinhardt, and Ch. Csinos V. Hunt, C. D., O/ Paul and Shirley Rothan, H/ either owner; IV--Ch. Behi's Csinos Csiny, O/ Bernard and Hilda Boggs, H/ Hilda Boggs, and Honey of Holzworth Farm, O/ H Paul Rolzworth; V--Denver Capt. Allen, O/H Neil Allen, and Chip Odysseus, O/ Kathy Hartl, H/ Len Hartl; VI--Ch. Bolen's Geza Bell, O/ Mervin and Connie Johnson, H/ Connie Johnson, and Jodo Red, O/H Jim Rose; VII--Ch. Nik V. Romerlin, O/H Ron Holmes, and Rozsdas Antac, O/H Wayne Lambrecht; VII--Windswept Spot, O/H Don Tade, and Piros of Mile High, O/H Anne DeBarr; Brace IX--Weedy Creek Chacha, O/H Allen Hahn.

The course consisted of variations between row crop and natural cover. The bird planters had excellent places to plant birds which made a good test of the dogs. Hungarian partridge, better known as chuckars, were used exclusively in the bird field, as well as in the back course. Most of the dogs participating in the Amateur Gun Dog event experienced some difficulty handling the chuckars. Many of the dogs failed to come through clean into the bird field.

AMATEUR GUN DOG RESULTS

1. Withheld
2. Ch. Csinos V. Hunt, C. D. (Ch. Csisckas of Goncoltanya-Astra V. Schonweide), owned by Paul and Shirley Rothan, and handled by Paul Rothan. This dog hunted well, quartered and hunted the objectives, showed a good style and honored well. The dog had three bird finds.
3. Weedy Creek Chacha, (Weedy Creek Skol-Weedy Creek Merya), owned and handled by Allen Hahn. This dog did not have quite as much drive as the second place dog, hunting at closer range, but had acceptable bird work. Chacha would cast our, then stop and look around, and particularly back at it s handler.
4. Withheld

Derby

Entries in the Open Derby consisted of the following: Brace I--Trigger Astra, O/H Terry Verdicchio, and Nosteni Kutya, O/H Lynn Kidd; II--Jayded West, O/ Johnnie and Donna Laucus, H/ Johnnie Laucus, and Brandy Jay Rugin, O/ Bill and Karen Rose, H/ Bill Rose; III--Red Stones Skol, O/ Harold Wingerter, H/ Hank Rozanek, and Arra's Rowdy Sport, O/ James and Carolyn Arrasmith, H/ Jim Arrasmith; IV--Candy Queen, O/H Lyle Morthole, and Little Bo, O/Ned Williams, Jr., H/ Sylvester Armstead; V--Szep Dixie Szekeres, O/ Harvey and Carolyn Oury, H/ Clif or Hilda Boggs, and Futaki Basil, O/H Arthur Templeton; VI--Red Ston's Heidi, O/ Robert Freyermuth, H/ Hank Rozanek, and Charlie of Weedy Creek, O/ Bud and Jane Graff, H/ either owner; VII--Good Upland

Jet, O/Ronald Dobry, H/Wayne Lambrecht, and Behi Csintalan, O/ Bernard and Hilda Boggs, H/ either owner; VIII-Weedy Creek Michelov, O/Bud and Jane Braff, H/ either owner, and Red Rock, O/H Sid Bounds; IX -- Penny V. Romarlin, O/ Ronald and Roberta Holmes, H/ Ron Holmes, and Slu Poke, O/H Ed Hickey.

OPEN DERBY RESULTS

1. Withheld
2. Good Upland Jet, (Rozsdas Antac -- Pittro's Smart Girl), owned by Ronald Dobry and handled by Wayne Lambrecht. This dog ran a good derby course and ended up with one bird find.
3. Trigget Astra, (Denver Captallen - Ginger Queen), owned and handled by Terry Verdicchio. This dog did not have quite as good a run as the second place dog. He had one bird find in the back course and one in the bird field.
4. Slu Poke, (Rusty Jay Laucus - Ginger Queen) owned and handled by Ed Hickey. This dog had acceptable run and bird work.

Open All Age

Entries in the Open All Age totalled fourteen dogs with the following dogs braced: I--Pittro's Smart Girl, O/H Gerald Pittro, and Ch. Csinos V. Hunt, C. D., O/H Paul Rothan; II--Honey of Holzworth Farm, O/H Paul Holzworth, and Haans V. Selle, O/H Dick Reinhardt; III--F. Ch. Weedy Creek Lobo, O/ Harold Wingerter, H/ Hank Rozanek, and Heidi of Windsweep, O/ Terri Reinhardt, H/ Dick Reinhardt; IV -- Ch. Behi's Csinos Csiny, C. D., O/ Bernard and Hilda Boggs, H/Bernard Boggs, and Ripp Barat's Bundle, O/ Will Sherman, H/ Hank Rozanek; V--Windswept Spot, O/ H Don Tade, and Weedy Creek Chacha, O/ Allen Hahn, H/ Harold Wingerter; VI--Luckie Dutches Selle, O/ Bill Fisher, H/ Hank Rozanek, and F. Ch. Jake Jacaranda, O/ Len Hartl, H/ Kathy Hartl; VII--Miss Nessi, O/ James and Carolyn Arrasmith, H/ Hank Rozanek, and Jodo Red, O/H Jim Rose.

In this event, all placements were withheld. All of the dogs had runs, but each of the dogs had a gross breach of manners as it pertained to the bird work and as a result, no placements were made, F. Ch. Weedy Creek Lobo laid down a good run, but chased a bird on the back course. Challenging Lobo was Jodo Red, who had a good, clean back course, but broke on his bird in the bird field.

Open Gun Dog

Sunday morning was a typical April morning in cool and colorful Colorado. The Open Gun Dog event was judged by Ted Weaver and Don Anderson. A total of fifteen dogs contested in this event in the following braces: I -- Ch. Behi's Csinos Csiny, C. D., O/H Bernard and Hilda Boggs, and Haans V. Selle, O/H Dick Reinhardt; II -- Jon Brok Cribaba, O/H Dale Blair, and Luckie Dutches Selle, O/ Bill Fisher, H/ Hank Rozanek; III -- Weedy Creek Chacha, O/H Allen Hahn, and Jodo Red, O/H Jim Rose; IV--Ch. Csinos V. Hunt, C. D., O/H Paul Rothan, and Chip Odysseus, O/ Kathy Hartl, H/ Len Hartl; V -- Miss Nessi, O/ James and Carolyn Arrasmith, H/ Hank Rozanek, and Windswept Spot, O/ H Don Tade; VI--Honey of Holzworth Farm, O/H Paul Rolzworth, and Bobo Buck Selle, O/H Sylvester Armstead; VII -- Pittro's Smart Girl, O/H Gerald Pittro, and Ripp Barat's Bundle, O/ Will Sherman, H/ Hank Rozanek; VIII -- Heidi of Windsweep, O/ Terri Reinhardt, H/ Dick Reinhardt.

OPEN GUN DOG RESULTS

1. Chip Odysseus, (F. Ch. Jake Jacaranda-Shirbob's Honey Dew), owned by Kathy Hartl and handled by Len Hartl. This dog, along with the second place dog presented an unusual situation as both of these dogs were bracemates, with Chip ranging wide and Csinos tending to loop back periodically. Both dogs discovered a chuckar between them and the bird continued to run between the dogs; however, both dogs ended up pinning the bird and demonstrating excellent bird work. Chip had one other bird in the bird field and a back, as did Ch. Csinos V. Hunt, C. D.
2. Ch. Csinos V. Hunt, C. D., (Ch. Csisckas of Goncoltanya - Astra V. Schonweide), owned by Paul and Shirley Rothan, handled by Paul Rothan.

3. Withheld
4. Weedy Creek Chacha, (Weedy Creek Skol-Weedy Creek Merya), owned and handled by Allen Hahn. Chacha ranged widely; however, he would stop at the end of a cast and look back toward the handler; he backed after a find in the bird field.

Puppy

Dale Thompson and Charlie Chalk judged the Open Puppy event with a total of ten braces consisting of the following: I--Jayded West, O/ Johnnie and Donna Laucus, H/ Johnie Laucus, and Little Bo, O/ Ned Williams, Jr., H/ Sylvester Armstead; II --Futaki Basil, O/H Arthur Templeton, and Tang-gul-foot, O/H Neil Allen; III--Red Stone's Skol, O/ Harold Wingerter, H / Hank Rozanek, and Bundles Red Duke, O /H Will Sherman; IV -- Redstone's Heidi, O/ Robert Freyermuth, H/ Hank Rozanek, and Nosteni Kutya, O/H Lynn Kidd; V -- Samuel Von Olca, O/H W. L. Pierce, and Trigger Astra, O/H Terry Verdicchio; VI --Freck Von Klein, O/H W. L. Pierce, and Arra's Rowdy Sport, O/James and Carolyn Arrasmith, H/ Jim Arrasmith; VII -- Sandy of Windsweep, O/ Joe Dolezal, H/ Hank Rozanek, and Bundles's Red Huffian, O/ Tim Lundy, H/ owner or Will Sherman; VIII -- Jake Jacaranda, Jr., O/H Bill Fisher, and Penny V. Romarlin, O/H Ron and Roberta Holmes, H/ Ron Holmes; XI -- Miss V Jake, H/ Bill or Greg Fisher, and Teuer Rotkopf, O/H Roy Stephenson; X--Barna's Voros Arany Orion, O/ Wesley and Phillip Brown, H/ Phil Brown.

OPEN PUPPY RESULTS

1. Bundles Red Dude, (Jodo Red - Ripp Barat's Bundle, owned and handled by Will Sherman. Dude had a good run of medium range; he handled well, showed a good style with head held high, with finds in the back course.
2. Trigger Astra, (Denver Captallen - Ginger Queen) owned and handled by Terry Verdicchio. This dog ran an independent course without necessity of much handling with two bird finds. Both first and second place dogs showed Open All Age potential.
3. Little Bo, (Bobo Buck Selle - Ginger) owned by New Williams, Jr., and handled by Sylvester Armstead. Little Bo ran a classy and stylish course, including two finds and two honors.
4. Jayded West, (Denver Captallen - Ginger Queen) owned by Johnnie and Donna Laucus, and handled by Johnnie Laucus, Jayded West had a driving course with good range, had two backs in the back course with one bird, but no opportunity to honor. Both of the third and fourth place dogs showed gun dog potential.

Open Limited

Upon completion of the two above-mentioned events, drawings were made for the Open Limited All Age. Six dogs competed in this event, all of whose owners and handlers have been previously listed: F. Ch. Weedy Creek Lobo, Ch. Behi's Csinos Csiny, C. D., Haans V. Selle, Weedy Creek Chacha, Windswept Spot, and Jodo Red.

OPEN LIMITED ALL AGE RESULTS

Upon completion of the event, only the second place award was made and this went to F. Ch. Weedy Creek Lobo (Weedy Creek Skol). In his run he hit the objectives; however, he did not stay out at all times in the back course. His bird work could have been a little more stylish with a classier retrieve.

Banquets

At the kick-off banquet, R. George Silvola, a field trialer and a member of the Skyline Brittany Club, showed elk hunting movies over a four-period in the high wilderness country of southwestern Colorado. Included in the movies were two trophy bulls, one a Royal Elk (seven points) and the other a six-pointer.

A high point of the judges banquet on Saturday was the introduction of Martin Lyons of Loveland, Colorado, owner of a seeing-eye Vizsla trained at Pilot Dogs. Mr. Lyons spoke of having owned various seeing eye dogs, including boxers, and advised all of the people present at the banquet that immediately upon his introduction to his Vizsla, he was able to tell that this was the dog for him. Mr. Lyons also stated that he felt the Vizsla makes an excellent seeing eye dog, and highly recommended that the VCOA consider strongly a program to make Vizsla dogs available for that purpose. Mr. Lyons further put on a demonstration as to how the dog handled, did an excellent job, and stated without any qualifications whatever, that his Vizsla is his eyes.

Congratulations were very much in order to May Carpenter of Carmel, California, and Connie Johnson of Reno, Nevada, who brought Ch. Debreceny Dezso and Ch. Bolen's Geza Bell to run in the Amateur Gun Dog stake. Also with them was Barbara Berlenbach. The three of them traveled in a self-contained camper, which Mrs. Carpenter successfully negotiated in her first encounter with driving in snow, in the mountains at that.

Another long-distance guest was Mrs. Anne Debar, from Mexico City, with her daughter. She was awarded a trophy at the banquet which said "Colorado Springs or BUST".

Another trophy winner at the banquet was Dr. Richard Reinhardt, of Scottsbluff, Nebraska, for his skill in falling off his horse that afternoon.

Of further interest to the Vizsla owners was the fact that on Tuesday evening Lyle Morthold of Wheatridge, Colorado, with his dog Candy Queen; Jim Rose of Boulder, Colorado, with his dog Jodo Red; Willard E. Sherman, of Littleton, Colorado; and R. George Silvola of Colorado Springs, Colorado, appeared on Channel 13, KKTV for a nine-minute television appearance to plug the 1969 trial. Excellent news coverage was also given on Channel 11, Station KRDO TV, along with the Gazette Telegraph, the daily afternoon newspaper, and Colorado Springs Free Press, the morning newspaper. Under the leadership of Jim Rose, Field Trial Committee Chairman, Johnnie Laucus, Field Trial secretary, and field trial committee members, Bill Rose, Ed Hickey, Dale Blair, Neil Allen, Lyle Morthole, Terry Verdicchio and Will Sherman, a well-run national event was staged at Fort Carson.

Many thanks are due to the military personnel of both the Game Farm and the Rod and Gun Club for the kindnesses to the Field Trial Committee in staging this event. The Vizsla Club of Colorado and the VCOA extend thanks to all the judges, gunners, bird planters, and everyone else who assisted in the staging of this event and made the event most memorable in the minds of everyone who came from far and near with their Vizslas for an outstanding event in the cool and colorful state of Colorado. Judging from the comments made by the attending field trailers, everyone seemed to enjoy their stay in Colorado Springs.

George Silvola is a Brittany field trailer, but really went to work to help the Vizsla people put on a good trial. He had articles in the Colorado Springs papers four times and time on television twice to boost this trial. He also wrote the entire article covering the trial, along with taking all the pictures of the trial. This includes 400 feet of 8 mm. movie film which the Vizsla Club of Colorado paid for. This film will be for rent to other clubs if they so desire. Many thanks for a job well done.

EDITOR'S NOTE -- On behalf of the VCOA, I would like to thank everyone who worked on the trial for a job well done. It was one of the smoothest-running trials I have been to. The grounds had some cactus, a nice change from our Iowa sandburrs, and plenty of room for running dogs. General applause greeted the announcement of withholding of placements at the banquet Saturday, to indicate that the judging standards were approved of.

ON THE COVER

Appearing on the front cover is Mister Sam, owned by Mr. James O. Brooke, Davenport, Iowa. Sam is living proof that a dog can be kept in the house and still be an excellent gun dog. Hunting with Mr. Sam is always a pleasure because of his great desire to please and his natural desire to do so. Many of the qualities of his sire, F. Ch. Jake Jacaranda are shown in Sam: his rugged endurance, his style, and his even temperament. His dam is Weedy Creek Sasha, his birthdate April 15, 1967.

FUTURITIES

The third forfeit for the 1969 VCOA Field Futurity must be paid by July 1, 1969. The forfeit is $5.00 to keep an individual pup eligible for running in the Futurity.

1970

Entries are now being taken for the 1970 Futurities, the chairman of which is Tony Lucas, 404 North Park, Westmont, Illinois 60559. Bitches must be nominated within 30 days after being bred. Litters must then be enrolled within 30 days after being whelped.

Copies of the complete rules are available from the chairman, Mr. Lucas.

ELECTED

Elected to the VCOA Board of Directors in the spring election were Will Sherman, Colorado; Jim Rose, Colorado; Hank Rozanek, Nebraska; Richard Reinhardt, Nebraska; Carolyn Arrasmith, Iowa; and Ronald Holmes, Iowa.

The minutes of the Board meeting as well as the annual meeting appear on the next two pages.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MINUTES

The Board of Directors of the Vizsla Club of America met at the Garden Valley Motel in Colorado Springs, Colorado on April 18, 1969. The following members were present: President Paul Rothan, Bill Fisher, Maurice Graff, Harold Wingerter, May Carpenter, Allen Hahn, Len and Kathy Hartl, Carolyn Arrasmith, Ronald Holmes, Richard Reinhardt, Hank Rozanek, Jim Rose, and Willard Sherman. Proxies were presented as follows: Richard Buhman by Len Hartl, Chauncey Smith by Dick Reinhardt, and Carlo Zezza by Dick Reinhardt.

The minutes of the last Board meeting were read. A correction was made to indicate an intention of the Board to locate a permanent fall field trial site, not necessarily the 1969 site. The minutes were approved as corrected.

The treasurer's report indicated a balance of $1834.91. The report was accepted by the Board.

The report of the Breed Improvement Committee was printed in the March, 1969, News. Dr. Reinhardt presented a letter from the Orthopedic Foundation asking for a representative from the VCOA to the OFA Advisory Board for Breed Clubs.

The Futurity Committee Reported that 13 litters were entered in the 1969 Futurity. Four males and 9 females are still included. Sixteen litters have been entered in the field futurity. The deadline for the final forfeit for the Field Futurity is July 1, 1969.

Len Hartl moved that Paul Rothan and Bill Fisher be elected to the board for one additional year to fulfill their offices as president and treasurer as provided in Article III, Section 4 of the VCOA constitution. Seconded by Hank Rozanek and passed.

Len Hartl reported on the meeting of the AKC Advisory Committee. The committee suggested a water retrieve be required for a field championship. The GSHP and GWP voted for a shoot-to-kill in derby stakes, but the Vizsla and Weimaraner representatives voted against it. AKC does not want to approve field trial judges, but they will print a book supplementing the Blue Book. The Committee agreed that clubs need to get away from artificial field trial situations by using continuous courses and no bird fields in puppy and derby stakes. Len also reported that AKC is considering an Amateur Field Trial Championship.

Will Sherman moved to have one VCOA specialty show a year. Bill Fisher seconded and motion passed.

May Carpenter moved that the VCOA alternate the VCOA specialty show between East, Central, and West in a four-year cycle. Seconded by Dick Reinhardt and passed.

Bill Fisher moved that we begin the four-year cycle in the Central Area in 1970, the West in 1971, Central in 1972, East in 1973, etc. Seconded by Bud Graff and passed.

Len Hartl moved that May Carpenter, Paul Rothan, and Carolyn Arrasmith be responsible for dividing the areas. Seconded by Will Sherman and passed.

The fall field trial in 1969 was discussed, and parts of letters written by Dick Olsen, Allan Hahn, and Paul Rothan were read. Bud Graff moved to table the fall field trial until after discussion with Dick Olsen. Seconded by Jim Rose and passed.

Len Hartl moved that the Open All Age and Limited All Age be combined into one Limited All Age stake with a one-hour continuous course beginning with the fall, 1969, trial. Seconded by Ron Holmes and passed.

It was generally agreed that the News would be used by the Board for correspondence.

Allan Hahn, chairman of the Field Committee, read invitations for the 1969 fall field trial from Seward, Nebraska; and from Rising City, Nebraska. These were tabled until further discussion of the fall trial.

The Board of Directors discussed the proposals of the GSHP club reported in the February News, 1969, to require a field test for bench champions. A letter to Carlo Zezza was read concerning the length of a Vizsla's tail.

Ron Holmes moved to permit females in season to run in the Futurities. Seconded by Bud Graff and passed.

The meeting was temporarily adjourned.

The meeting began again about 5:30. Jane Graff and Len Hartl reported on their conversations with Dick Olsen. He said that plans had been made to hold the fall field trial at Bong Recreation Area on October 11 and 12. The Wisconsin Conservation Commission will donate 125 pheasants. George Solberg will act as secretary and Dick Olsen will serve as chairman.

Ron Holmes moved that the VCOA fall field trial be held at Bong Recreation Area and that the chairman of the Field Committee write a letter to Dick Olsen telling him to get the best suitable grounds recognizing that the state field trial grounds may not be suitable. Will Sherman seconded. Voting in favor were Holmes, Zezza, Smith, Reinhardt, Sherman, and Anderson. Voting against were Hartl, Arrasmith, Fisher, Rozanek, Buhman, Hahn, and Wingerter. Motion defeated.

Len Hartl moved that the President write a letter explaining procedure for planning field trials and hold the 1969 VCOA fall field trial at Bong Recreation Area. Seconded by Will Sherman and carried by an 11 to 4 vote.

Len Hartl, Jane Graff, and Dick Reinhardt were appointed to draw up a list of judges to be sent to the field trial committee.

The meeting was again temporarily adjourned and reconvened after the Judges Banquet on Saturday, April 19. The following officers were elected: Secretary, May Carpenter; First vice president, Dick Reinhardt; Third vice president, Allen Hahn.

The meeting was adjourned.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Vizsla Club of America was held on April 19, 1969, at the Garden Valley Motel in Colorado Springs, Colorado. President Paul Rothan called the meeting to order at 9:05 P. M. A summary of board actions was read by Kathy Hartl.

A question was raised concerning the lack of a regular Vizsla column in the AKC Gazette. Past procedure was discussed and it was pointed out that anyone can write a column and send it through the president and secretary to AKC.

Elected to the nominating committee for 1970 elections were Len Hartl, Jane Graff and Wayne Lambrecht.

Clif Boggs moved that the power and authority for writing the AKC Gazette Column be returned to the Board to appoint whomever they see fit. Seconded by Jane Graff and passed.

Clif Boggs moved that the membership ratify the Board action taken concerning the number and type of stakes in VCOA trials. Seconded by Jane Graff and carried.

Clif Boggs moved that the judges for the one-hour continuous stake be Vizsla judges. Vizsla judge, in discussion, was defined as a Vizsla owner who had earned a placement in a stake other than puppy or derby. The motion was seconded by Paul Holzworth and defeated.

A wire was read expressing good wishes to the VCOA for the trial from Chauncey and Carole Smith, Carlo and Betty Zezza, Carl Richey, and the Vizsla Club of Central New England.

The meeting was adjourned by the president.

Vizsla Club of Greater New York

by John Sharp

The most recent guest speaker at this club's functions was Captain Arthur J. Haggerty, founder of "Capt. Haggarty's School for Dogs." The Captain devoted the first portion of his address to the considerations and problems involved in working with the Vizsla temperament and how these may vary depending upon what the dog is being trained for. The evening was of particular value because the entire address centered only around the Vizsla, and it was obvious from the start that Capt. Haggerty has personally worked with Vizslas and is well-versed in the subject.

The second portion of his address was given to a question and answer period lasting well over an hour. We feel the gentleman cannot be too highly recommended and any organization interested in the subject of training would do well to consider having Capt. Haggerty as their guest.

Another note of interest is that The Vizsla Club of Greater New York held its first field match recently at the Braeburn Game Preserve in Circleville, New York. It was held on a beautiful autumn day, but the weather conditions did not offer the best scenting conditions -- the birds were not staying down. The winning dogs were as follows:

PUPPY STAKE
1. Arany Bol Leany, Kevin McCune
2. Glen Cottage Loki Barat, David Sheehan
3. Elsa Richards, Richard Zappacosta
4. Karratz Special Edition, Bud McGivern

AMATEUR STAKE
1. Ch. Gold Star's Valdar, Anton Tinnesz
2. Rusty, Ray Damiano
3. Ch. Puerco Pete Barat, Joe Cunningham
4. Buske Vadas, Russell Baldwin

3. Duchess Golden Sissy, Laroy Camp
4. Nimrod Kacer, Al Mentes

OPEN ALL DOGS

2. Ch. Gold Star's Valdar, Anton Tinnesz
3. Rusty, Ray Damiano
4. Withheld

Our thanks to John Remondi of Armonk, New York, and Vincent Macavoy of Seaford, Long Island, who adroitly judged the trial and gave the entrants every opportunity to show what they were capable of, and to John Strauz and Joe Cunningham who organized and managed our club's first field trial, an event we plan to hold annually.

(Ed. note -- My apologies to the N. Y. club for not getting this in an earlier issue.)
