CH. SZEKERES' KIS SZERETO -- "BRATT"

Conestoga Club

by Ann Brawner

The Conestoga Vizsla Club held an AKC sanctioned field trial on March 15 and 16, 1969, at River Hill Farm, Clarksville, Maryland. Del Seelye repeated his usual excellent job of running the event with the assistance of Bernie Taylor, Barry Rathvon, Richard Beniot, Bill Lutz, and Ann Brawner, plus those very fine gunners, Richard McCracken, Robert Cipolla, and Joseph Pentecost. Seventy-seven dogs were drawn, and 75 dogs ran under the discerning eyes of our knowledgeable judges, Mr. Edward H. Cashell of Clarksville, Md., and Mr. H. Merle Lennon of Towson, Md. Saturday's bitter winds required this cowardly reporter to enlist aid in riding braces and taking notes. I am grateful to Barry Rathvon, Sam Bigler, Dick Kocan and Mike Allen who took over whenever I started to turn blue. Jim Jackson of the Weimaraner Club covered the entire Member's Stake.

On Saturday night the long and leisurely cocktail hour in the clubhouse was a most relaxing interval before the delicious fried chicken dinner put on by the members of the Linthicum Church. The trial was great fun and very successful, and we owe Del Seelye many thanks for his constant efforts on behalf of the Conestoga Vizsla Club. Placements in the five stakes were as follows:

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY CLUB

by Al Mentes

CH. SZEKERES' KIS SZERETO -- "BRATT"
Sired by Dual Ch. Futaki Darocz x Ch. Szekeres' Kezdet

"BRATT," owned by Carole & Chauncey Smith, Chester, New Hampshire, is a three-year-old bitch with an outstanding field record of 20 wins and placements out of a possible 25. Bratt was the VCOA Spring 1967 Derby winner and at the VCOA Fall 1968 trial placed second in the Open Gun Dog stake.

In addition to her field accomplishments, Bratt was handled and finished on the bench by her owner in 12 shows. Bratt placed first in the Field Bitch Class at last year's VCOA Specialty Show.

"BRATT" has been bred with HAANS V SELLE and is due to whelp on July 22.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

by Elaine Saldivar

After successful field training sessions held monthly, work with our dogs will cease until September when we will start planning for a sanctioned field trial. During the summer months it is hoped to hold a conformation-obedience match at Cambria Kennels in Santa Ana.

On May 25th Vizslas participated for the first time in the "Sporting Dog Exhibition Day" sponsored by the Sporting Dog Council of Southern California. The Burdette's Rocky and Warner's Czardas were used for the field demonstration and Pierce's Mag-Pi, CDX with Mary Anne Pierce handling, showed the Vizslas' ability in obedience. John Fife was narrator, ably assisted by 'Doc' Campbell.

New champions are Ken Neill's Jomar's Cinnamon Sam and Julie Fischbach's Juliana's Aranya.

Congratulations to Jason, owned by Russ Moon of Woodland Hills for earning his Tracking Degree April 13th at the Valley Hills Obedience Club Tracking Test. Gypsy's Jason of Angelus was bred by club member Dr. John Vinson. Mr. Moon started training Jason in tracking at age three months, and out of an entry of five dogs, he was one of two to earn his degree.

OHIO CLUB

by Ed Wallencheck

Our first licensed field trial was held at the Cedar Valley Shooting Preserve near Wooster, Ohio, on Saturday and Sunday, April 26 - 27, 1969. Considering the adversities, we had an excellent weekend for our trial. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday preceding the trial, a very heavy rain came down and completely ruined our planned course. But through the combined efforts of Al Kleinschmidt, and F. T. secretary, and Pete Mowrer, the owner of Cedar Valley, an alternate course was laid out on the hill overlooking the valley. A road was bulldozed up the hill by Pete Mowrer which was steep, but adequate to permit autos to drive up the hillside and park overlooking the bird field. Although the new course was not as good as the original course, it served the purpose admirably.

The first brace of the Open Derby was set down at 7:30 A. M. and the dogs were ready and eager. The Open Derby was followed by Open Gun Dog, then Amateur Gun Dog. Only two braces of the Amateur were run on Saturday; the rest ran on Sunday, followed by the Open All Age, which completed the trial. The Open Puppy was run on Saturday morning at 11:00 A. M. and completed at 1:00 P. M. A total of 39 dogs in 51 entries competed in the five stakes: 32 Vizslas, 5 GSP, 1 Brittany, and 1 Irish Setter.

We had two of the most capable judges that ever presided over an Ohio trial. They were Martin Walter and Paul Kile of Defiance, Ohio. These two men judged the stakes other than puppy. Open Puppy was judged by Patrick Walch, president of the club, and Bill Sulesky, club member.

The gunners were Rich Kasunic and Ed Zang. Serving as field trial marshals were Ed Wallencheck and Kenneth Zack.

These are the placed dogs:

Jerry is one of those city-dwellers who has problems in finding other places to run his dog enough to condition her.

The Vizsla Club of Central New England will hold a Sanctioned B match on Sunday, July 20th at Chester, New Hampshire. Dr. B. E. McGivern, Staten Island, New York, will judge the match. The event is being held in conjunction with the Club's annual meeting and election of officers.

YOUR DOG ?

by Janice Buckles

Rebel is a ball of fire,
I don't think he ever gets tired,
He goes hunting all day,
And when he points birds he doesn't play,
He seldom ever barks
And sometimes him and I go for a walk in the park
Rebel is a classy fool,
And he wears a red coat that shines like jewels.
Once in his foot he got a thorn,
Rebel didn't cry though his foot was torn.
Rebel is a Vizsla and he is my Dad's dog.
When he knows he has done his job,
Then he sleeps like a log.

Letter

Dear Editor and Board Members:

The February issue of the Vizsla News carried an article that had been published in Dog World, written by Don Miner of Calif., about a proposed change in GSP requirements for championship titles. It was discussed at the meeting in Colorado Springs, and some expressed the belief that the GSP club had already approved the proposals described therein: to require dogs to pass certain field tests before they are awarded bench championship titles. Since the meeting, I have made some inquiries and find that the proposals have never even been presented to the membership for approval, much less approved.

Incidentally, our trip home was uneventful, except for gale winds ripping off our awning out of Winnemucca, Nev., and a snow storm on Donner Summit delaying us a few hours.

Ch. Nik V Romarlin, owned by Ron and Bobbie Holmes, finished with a five-point major at Ottumwa, Iowa. He also won two four-point majors and 7 Best of Breeds on the way to his championship. He was handled by Bobbie. Under Ron's handling, Nik won VCOA, Iowa (twice), and Illinois Open Puppy stakes, and placed in the VCOA and Iowa Open Derby stakes.

FROM THE EDITOR:

As many of you have noticed, the May and June issues have been somewhat late. Since school is [illegible] and I am on vacation, I hope to get back on schedule in September by combining the July and August issues. I need interesting material and pictures. By that time I hope to have some information on the VCOA Specialty, which is scheduled for August 16 at the Chagrin Valley Kennel Club Show near Chagrin Valley, Ohio. Premium lists will be sent to members by Bow Dog Show Organization. If any additional copies are needed, they may be obtained from them at 9999 Broad Street, Detroit, Michigan 48204. The 1969 Show Futurity will also be held at this time. (A Futurity entry must also be entered in a regular class at the Specialty.)

I also hope to have some information about the VCOA Fall field trial to print in the next issue of the News. The only information I have is the tentative date of October 11 - 12 at Bong Recreation Area in Wisconsin. I have not yet heard whether this has been confirmed by AKC.

Deadline for the July - August issue is July 15. Normal deadline for material is the first of each month.

VIZSLA ARTICLE

From the May issue of Dog World, "News and Views," by William L. Kendrick, referring to the Santa Clara Valley Kennel Club show in San Jose, California:

"Mr. Stoecker judged BiS and was faced with this sextet: the Vizsla, Ch. Debreceny Dezso; ..... Mr. Stoecker had no hesitancy in answer to our query that this choice was a hard one between the Poodle and the Pomeranian, with the Vizsla as a strong contender.....

"The Group-winning Vizsla is a revelation to this observer in a breed in which, frankly, we have never seen one with as much appeal. Then again, we have not seen all of the Vizslas in America. Nevertheless, his well-laid, sloping shoulders, level top, wide thighs with good let-down of hocks, excellent legs and feet, and level, merry tail, contributed a memorable picture. Inquiry revealed that this Vizsla is California born and bred. He is a credit to the ingenuity of American breeder effort. It has become the "done thing" to downgrade Americans as breeders. Concededly, they do not inhabit a tight little isle where distances are short and proven stock getting stud dogsat reasonable fees are within easy reach. Nevertheless, American breeders have accomplished miracles, particularly in the continental breeds in which impartial observers concede that the American product in many of them is the equal of, or superior to, the native-grown. He could herald a new era in this country for this attractive gundog breed. He was handled by Walt Shellenbarger in a light-handed manner on a loose lead. It was Howard Tyler who placed him first in the Sporting Group."
